

Everything you wanted to know (and then some) about

FLORIDA'S CIVIL INJUNCTIONS FOR PROTECTION

- ❖ HOW MANY TYPES ARE THERE?
- ❖ WHO CAN OBTAIN ONE?
- ❖ HOW ARE THEY GRANTED AND ENFORCED?
- ❖ WHAT DO THEY ACHIEVE?
- ❖ ARE THE LEGAL REMEDIES EFFECTIVE?
- ❖ HOW DO I ANSWER A CHILD'S QUESTIONS ABOUT INJUNCTIONS?

Thursday, May 30, 2013 5:30–7:00 PM

The goal of this program is to provide guardian ad litem volunteers with an overview of Florida's civil injunction for protection process as well as a greater understanding of how these various injunctions might relate to their advocacy for children.

As a result of attending this training, the participants will be able to:

- Identify Florida's five civil injunctions for protection
- Define the purpose of Chapter 39 injunctions and their role in protecting both mothers and children
- Explain the judicial process by which these injunctions are granted and enforced
- Analyze the effectiveness of the legal remedies offered by the injunctions, including implications for children

Speaker: Austin Newberry

Office of Court Improvement
Office of the State Courts Administrator
Supreme Court of Florida

Location: Leon County Court Annex
1920 Thomasville Road
Suite 208
Tallahassee, FL 32303

RSVP: christine.gornik@gal.fl.gov

